FOREST SERVICE UPDATE

COMMISSIONERS

At 3:00 p.m. Chairman Wright opened a Special Meeting with Michelle Capp, Forest Service District Ranger regarding Title 2 for Taneum, Swauk and Mining issues.

Michelle Capp, Forest Service District Ranger reviewed her duties and responsibilities and wanted the Board to know she is available to address any specific issues they may have or anything that might be on their radar. She said she's looking forward to maintaining a good relationship between the Forest Service and Kittitas County.

She provided information on various projects and the unique challenges that they will be facing in the future including the lack of funding from resources; how to manage landscape and working together from a recreation standpoint. She reviewed current projects they are working on including roads and Fire Adaptive Communities.

Commissioner Osiadacz said if there was anything the Forest Service wanted to get out to the public on social media to let the Commissioner's office know and they could put it on their Facebook page.

The meeting was adjourned 3:45 p.m.
