SPECIAL MEETING

EXTENSION UPDATES

EXTENSION

At 3:30 p.m. Chairman Wright opened a Special Meeting to receive a quarterly update from the WSU Cooperative Extension office.

Alison White, Extension Agent provided information on the various duties she performs as well as the programs they have been working on since the last time they met with the Board. She provided a general overview of the 4-H programs and the assistance they provide to approximately 4,500 kids between Kittitas and Yakima Counties along with hundreds of volunteers. The Extension office intends on getting out more Press Releases to keep the community informed of what's going on with programs, opportunities, and assistance that might be available. She shared information on a substantial grant they recently received and the projects that will be a benefit for the youth.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:01 p.m.
