Update on CDS Staff

Lindsey Ozbolt, Planning Official and Mike Flory, Building Official filled in for Director Carlson while he was out of the office. Ms. Ozbolt stated that Community Development Services has stayed busy throughout the mandatory shut down. Processing applications that were taken in prior to the shut-down and then accepting new applications (building, fire, or planning related) through the drop box located outside of the office. Ms. Ozbolt reported that planning has stayed consistent and is currently receiving 2-5 permit applications per week which is standard for this time of year. The Fire Marshals office has started fire sprinkler inspections again and did 15 fire sprinkler inspections just last week. Now that the Fire Marshals office is all caught up now and will resume conducting these types of inspections. Building Official, Mike Flory briefed the Board of County Commissioners with the status of the building inspections. During the mandatory shut-down, March 23 through April 27, only twelve emergency repairs, essential and agricultural inspections were conducted. During April 27 through May 8, 357 types of inspections were conducted

The meeting was adjourned 1:50 p.m.
